

Through Her Eyes

Dennis Leogrande

Moderately with much emotion

The musical score is written for piano in 4/4 time, featuring a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The piece is marked "Moderately with much emotion" and begins with a dynamic of mf. The score is divided into four systems, each with a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The first system contains 4 measures, the second 4 measures, the third 4 measures, and the fourth 4 measures. The piece concludes with a final whole note chord in the right hand and a whole note bass note in the left hand. Performance instructions include "rit." (ritardando) and "A tempo" (return to the original tempo) appearing above the right-hand staff in the second and third systems. The score includes several triplet markings (indicated by a '3' over a bracket) and various phrasing slurs and ties.

Through Her Eyes

The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. Both staves are in a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The music features a complex texture with many beamed eighth and sixteenth notes, often grouped with slurs. A triplet of eighth notes is marked with a '3' in the final measure of the system.

The second system continues the piece with two staves. The notation is dense with many beamed notes and slurs. The bass staff has a few measures with rests, indicated by a '7' (seven sixteenth notes) and a whole note. The piece concludes this system with a half note in the bass staff.

The third system features two staves with intricate melodic lines. The bass staff includes a measure with a whole note and a measure with a half note, both marked with a '7' (seven sixteenth notes). The system ends with a half note in the bass staff.

The fourth system concludes the piece with two staves. It includes a triplet of eighth notes in the upper staff and a measure with a whole note in the bass staff marked with a '7' (seven sixteenth notes). The system ends with a half note in the bass staff.
